

Artwork: Watercolor Landscape

Title: Holiday Road

Size: 18inx24in

Medium: watercolor on paper

Completion: 9/11/19

I wanted to express the drive toward a destination. People are often so driven to complete one singular goal, that they do not stop to check the scenery. Like being consumed with thoughts on college and being consumed with the thought of your life in the future, when the present is existing and you are missing it.

Artwork: Digital Collage

Title: Insecure number

Size: 24x36 in

Medium: Adobe Photoshop CS6

Completion: 10/28/18

This piece represents insecurity, and how we try to protect ourselves from the bad, I wanted to convey beauty and fear at the same time. Because insecurity does protect us, but it also hurts us.

Artwork: Dry point

Title: Focus through chaos

Size: 6inx8in

Medium: Intaglio on watercolor paper

Completion: 11/21/18

This piece represents the fight to focus through chaos and the struggle of juggling many tasks at once. My concept came from the overwhelming work that I am expected to complete while also having a job and participating in basketball everyday after school. However I am always able to get focused and find a way to get my work done.

Artwork: Self Portrait

Title: Princess Leia

Size: 3ftx3ft

Medium: Acrylic on canvas, Metal leaf-gold, Elmer's glue

Completion: 1/22/19

This piece represents me accepting myself for who I am, and self love. There was a time in my life when I hated everything about myself, and I tried to change who I was to fit in. Through art I am able to grow and build my confidence, this has added greatly to my self esteem and I am able to accept myself and love myself for who I am.

Artwork: Illustration

Title: Force (negative), Love (positive)

Size: 15" x 10"

Medium: colored pencil, watercolor on illustration board

Completion: 3/17/18

In Force it expresses the vulnerability a woman when she is taken advantage of by a man forcefully. Just because you feel strong feelings for someone, it doesn't mean that they feel the same way. Love features the loving embrace between a man and a woman, and how she trusts him enough to turn her back to him and enjoy the moment.

Artwork: Choice piece

Title: Stained

Size: 4ftx2ft

Medium: Acrylic on canvas, Food coloring, bubble solution, mixed media paint.

Completion: 4/18/19

This piece shows that you can't wash away and cover up your mistakes, you must deal with them. Much of the politics that influence our world today teach the public that it's okay to lie, and hide behind the truth. I was inspired by the political art of Mark Bryan, and how he illustrates the truth about government.

Artwork: Summer

title: Sleeping with You

size: 3x3 ft

medium: acrylic on canvas

completion: 7/20/19

This piece represents the feeling of sleeping with someone by your side, and the warm feeling in your heart when someone else's arms are around you. There is a certain sense of security and being completely content, that is unexplainable with words.

Artwork: Mixed Media Sculpture

Title: Skinnier Doesn't Mean Prettier

Size: 12inx10inx8in

Medium: Driftwood, 1 inch nails, 3 inch screws, 2 inch screws, Terracotta Air dry clay, Acrylic paint, and Super glue.

Completion: 11/23/18

This piece represents how bigger women are beautiful too. How even though they have more meat on their bones It doesn't mean that they are any less perfect than someone who starves themselves.

Artwork: Oil Painting

Title: Loss of a friend

Size: 2ftx2ft

Medium: Oil on canvas

Completion: 11/30/19

This piece represents my feelings on the loss of a dear friend to me. I lost my best friend at work Dom Manske, I needed an outlet to accept and express my feelings during his passing. The darkness coming from the eyes represents the pain and darkness leaving my body through tears, as I accept the loss of Dom.

Artwork: watercolor

Title: Mother

Size: 2ftx1ft

Medium: watercolor on Bristol, liner pens, and colored pencil.

Completion: 12/1/19

This piece explains that abortion is a woman's choice, and that it is hers and hers alone. Men's opinion on the matter is not valid, because they will never have to face this decision, as they are represented as empty sperm within the matter. What happens to a woman's body is her choice and no one else's.

Artwork: MIAD Project

Title: Reasons

Size: 3x3ft

Medium: Acrylic based ink on Tyvek

Completion: 10/30/18

For Reasons my intentions were to capture the reasons of polish immigrants leaving their country and moving into Milwaukee in an abstract and eye catching fashion. I was inspired by the textures used by H.R. Giger to enhance natural forms because the majority of the reasons people left Poland was due to agricultural issues.
